

Why do we have to follow the rules, even if we don't want to?

We have rules because, it keeps us safe so nobody gets harmed or injured. We also have laws that the whole world must follow or we will be in trouble. We can make rules, lets have some examples!

If someone is annoying you then think, should you fight back or tell a teacher?

WHAT IS

SI YES.

REGULATION

BE KIND

If you don't follow rules, it is not cool and can hurt others or get us into trouble. It can upset others if you are doing anything against the rules.
